

Instructions for Mendez v. Westminster Textbook Account

Using evidence from the sources you read and saw in class, write a textbook account of the Mendez case for a class of 11th-grade U.S. history students.

Your textbook account must include the following:

Chapter Title

➤ A chapter title (Try to avoid using “Mendez v. Westminster” or anything similar.)

Text

- When and how the Mendez case began
- What happened during the Mendez case
- The results of the Mendez case
- Why Mendez is or is not important to U.S. history

Image

- A quick sketch
- Caption explaining the image

Review Questions

- Two to three review questions you would ask students reading your textbook account.
- Questions should require students reading your account to describe the most important things of the Mendez case.