

TEACHING TOLERANCE

A PROJECT OF THE SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTER
TOLERANCE.ORG

Little Rock Crisis Graphic Organizer

Use your interview and class presentations to complete this graphic organizer for the following participants in the NPR interviews: Ernest Green, Elizabeth Eckford, Minnijean Brown Trickey, Gloria Ray Karlmark, Dr. Terrance Roberts, Melba Patillo Beals, Annie Abrams, Elizabeth Jackoway, Dr. Sybil Jordan Hampton, Cyrus Bahrassa and Governor Mike Beebe. Each group will provide you with different information. After each presentation, rewrite the required sentence in each section, using your own words.

INDIVIDUAL	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about Daisy Bates	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about or memories of the little rock nine's experiences integrating Central High School
(Example) Minnijean Brown Trickey	Believed that Daisy Bates took too much credit and overshadowed the sacrifices of the Little Rock Nine's parents.	Trickey remembered being threatened by segregationists and how difficult the abuse she endured in school was for her parents to endure.
Ernest Green
Elizabeth Eckford

INDIVIDUAL	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about Daisy Bates	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about or memories of the little rock nine's experiences integrating Central High School
Minnijean Brown Trickey
Gloria Ray Karlmark
Dr. Terrance Roberts
Melba Patillo Beals
Annie Abrams

INDIVIDUAL	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about Daisy Bates	One sentence summarizing this person's thoughts about or memories of the little rock nine's experiences integrating Central High School
Elizabeth Jackoway
Dr. Sybil Jordan Hampton
Cyrus Bahrassa
Governor Mike Beebe		