Describing a Role Model

Answer the following questions to help you get ready to describe a role model.

WHO: Who is your role model? What are a few things that describe what your role model does?

WHAT: What makes this person a role model for you? What characteristics of his do you admire? Name at least one specific thing he has done that makes him a change agent in your eyes.

HOW: How does your role model work for change? Be as specific as possible.
