Free Educational Materials from Teaching Tolerance

Teaching Tolerance Magazine Subscription

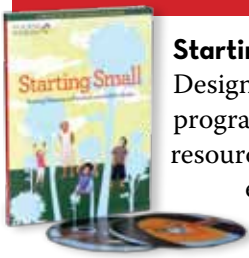

Published twice a year, our magazine profiles educators, schools and programs promoting diversity and equity in inspirational and replicable ways.

Teaching Tolerance makes copies of its educational kits and subscriptions to its magazine available to educators FREE of charge.

Educators who qualify for FREE products are:

- Classroom teachers
- School librarians
- School counselors and administrators
- Professors of education
- Leaders of homeschool networks
- Youth directors at houses of worship
- Employees at youth-serving nonprofit organizations

All items require a principal or administrator signature (with the exception of the Teaching Tolerance magazine subscription).

Starting Small

Designed for in-service programs, this film and resource CD profile exemplary pre-K through 3rd grade classrooms in which peace, equity and justice are guiding themes.
