

Family Interview

My name is: _____

There are _____ people in my family.

We speak these language(s) in our home: _____

An ancestor is a relative who lived before me. My ancestors came from (list one or more countries):

One relative or important adult who came to this country from another country is named _____

_____. S/he came to this country in _____ (year)

because _____

The traditions that have been passed down from generation to generation in our family are part of our cultural history. They help to make my family unique. These traditions can include holidays, foods we eat, language(s) we speak, games we play, things we like to do, and other customs. Below are three family traditions or customs that have been passed down from my ancestors:

1.

2.

3.

The family tradition that is most special to the person I interviewed is _____

because _____

The family tradition that is most special to me is _____

because _____

On the back of this paper is a picture that represents something special about my family's cultural history ...