DEFINING TERMS

Timed Pair Share

Form pairs. Student A explains the term while student B listens. Then switch roles. Student B now explains the term while student A listens. You each have two minutes to make sure you understand the meaning of the term.

STUDENT A

Term:
DE FACTO SEGREGATION
The separation of different groups of people based on some characteristic (e.g., race, religion, ethnicity) that is not required by law, but that happens anyway.

STUDENT B

Term:
DE JURE SEGREGATION
The separation of different groups of people based on some characteristic (e.g., race, religion, ethnicity) that is required by law.
